Details

A ready-to-use, partly furnished apartment in Arabia, one of Hurghada's established city districts close to everyday services, local cafés, shops and the Red Sea city life. The apartment is located on the first floor in a residential building without elevator and offers a bright living and dining area, a separate equipped kitchen, two bedrooms, one bathroom and a balcony with an urban courtyard view. It is suitable for buyers who want a practical home in Hurghada rather than a resort-only holiday unit: easy to live in, simple to maintain and positioned in a real residential neighborhood. The photos show a clean, lived-in apartment with classic partial furniture, air conditioning, tiled floors and useful household appliances. Arabia is valued for its...

Location and use

Arabia is an established residential district in Hurghada with a local, urban character. Daily shopping, transport, cafés and city services are close by, while the Red Sea, marina area and central Hurghada are easy to reach. This makes the apartment interesting for permanent living,...
